

Internship Global Business Development (m/f)

We at FOURSOURCE are building a unique and innovative fashion & textile global sourcing platform. The company is well funded through industry-near investors and driven by the absolute will to attack a 3-digit billion $ global market problem. Our vision is to resolve the missing transparency in the highly-fragmented fashion sourcing market. We provide the solution that enables all market players to massively speed-up their cycle time, be on-trend, and leverage their value proposition to their customers.

To pursue our ambitious growth and market strategy, we are looking for an Intern (m/f) in our Global Business Development team at our headquarters in Berlin. You will be a part of an internationally and professional team, responsible for supporting and further developing our global sourcing platform in strategic and operational matters.

Your responsibilities:

- Work on various business development projects internationally
- Contribute to the development of new product features or the development of our global markets
- Participate in day-to-day business and take over own responsibility
- Preparation of reports and analyses
- Support worldwide team members

You come with:

- At least finished 2nd university semester with excellent scores, preferably in economics, business administration, engineering or textile
- Strong analytical skills and ability to multitask in a fast-paced environment
- Independent, responsible and structured way of working
- Good knowledge of Microsoft Office
- Great communication skills in German and English, additional languages are a plus

We offer:

- An internship with high degrees of responsibility and autonomy
- Plenty of room for personal growth, professional development and high impact
- A highly talented, dynamic, and international team
- An attractive compensation
- Entrepreneurial experience in a well-financed, international company

Location: Berlin
